

SAN JOSE & SILICON VALLEY	Santa Clara Valley/Silicon Valley/South Bay
BUS
Santa Clara VTA http://www.vta.org	Provides service throughout Santa Clara County and partners with other systems for bus and rail service between Santa Clara County and the counties of Alameda, Santa Cruz, San Mateo and San Francisco.
WHEELS http://www.wheelsbus.com	Operates sixteen local routes serving Dublin, Pleasanton and Livermore. Express connections between Livermore and Dublin/Pleasanton BART are available. Express Bus service to Silicon Valley and between Walnut Creek and the Tri-Valley area is also available during commute hours.
TRAIN
Altamont Commuter Express (ACE) http://www.acerail.com/	Operates eight commuter trains each weekday in the Altamont corridor: four a.m. westbound trains in the mornings, and four p.m. eastbound trains in the afternoon and evenings. ACE travels between Stockton and San Jose, with additional stops in Lathrop/Manteca, Tracy, Vasco, Livermore, Pleasanton, Fremont, Great America, and Santa Clara (currently suspended station, effective August 1, 2005). ACE in conjunction with WHEELS provides free shuttle bus service (Wheels Route #54) between the ACE Pleasanton Station and the Dublin BART station and return.
Capitol Corridor InterCity Rail http://www.capitolcorridor.org	Serves 16 stations along its 170-mile route, and offers frequent service between Sacramento, the San Francisco Bay Area and Silicon Valley/San Jose. Connections to BART are available at the Oakland Coliseum and Richmond Intermodal Stations. Discounted rates are available for frequent travelers, and free transfers are available for many local transit systems.
Caltrain http://www.caltrain.com/	Operates weekday trains between San Francisco and San Jose, with commute-hour service to Gilroy. Weekend service is offered from San Francisco to San Jose.
Santa Clara VTA (Light Rail) http://www.vta.org	Provides service throughout Santa Clara County and partners with other systems for bus and rail service between Santa Clara County and the counties of Alameda, Santa Cruz, San Mateo and San Francisco.